Student Teacher Program (Act 86)

The Act 86 Program, effective summer of 2016, allows current students enrolled in a Pennsylvania accredited college or university pursuing teacher certification to work as a substitute teacher. The program is designed for student teachers to gain experience in the classroom for a maximum of twenty days per school year.

The following criteria must be met to qualify for this program:

- Proof of enrollment in an accredited college or university and teacher preparation program
- Proof of 60 earned credit hours, including current enrollment status
